DECEMBER 2014

FROM THE DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS

The last month of the year is an appropriate time to celebrate the coming of Christ. It speaks of a new beginning; it speaks of leaving the past and experiencing what God has planned for the future. Christmas is about celebrating the revelation of redemption in our redeemer. It is about God giving a new birth and another opportunity to tell the world of our Savior's worth. There was a day when the prophets foretold the coming Messiah. There came a day when the Messiah was born in Bethlehem. There was a day when Jesus, the Christ was despised and rejected by men. There will come a day when every knee shall bow and every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord. There was a day when Jesus stood before Herod's throne to be judged. There is coming a day when Herod will stand before the Throne of Jesus Christ and be judged. Christmas caused the end to turn out like the beginning when God looked at creation and saw that it was good. Christmas reminds us that the world which was in turmoil then has not changed, but we have changed because of Christ. In the midst of this world's tumult we still travel in our minds to Bethlehem finding peace and hope in the birth Christ.

Christmas also gives Christians another occasion to care by demonstrating God's love. Our WMU is collecting Christmas packets for prisoners again this year. Please prepare your packets with prayers that these items will help get the Good News to prisoners wanting to be freed from the bondage of sin. Pastor Abiel faithfully ministers to the Hispanic community in our area. He has given us names and ages of children that would greatly appreciate something for Christmas this year. Please call us at the WBA office and we can give you names and ages of these children. We'll be the collection point for Pastor Abiel, but we need the presents at the WBA office by the second week of December in order to distribute them. If your church or Sunday School Class will take part just call and get the information. Christmas is a great time to remember the work that our Baptist Collegiate Minister, David Neace, is doing at Coastal Carolina University. This ministry operates with little and reaps eternal rewards. Often, just a card with a thank you inside gives lasting encouragement. Finally, many of our churches operate food banks and clothes closets all year long. It is the time of year to help stock those ministries with the things people need and the hope that only Christ can give. It is my prayer that God will bless the works of your hands and be gracious to you for caring and keeping the greatest commandment to "Love God with all of your heart and your neighbor as yourself." From all of us at the Waccamaw Baptist Association may you have a blessed Christmas and may God use your labor in the Lord to be a blessing this Christmas.

NEWS FROM WACCAMAW WMU

“But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.” Isaiah 40:31

What a sweet spirit was present at Pleasant Meadow Baptist Church during the 2014 Baptist Women's World Day of Prayer on Monday, November 3! WMU is grateful to Debby Akerman, Dr. and Mrs. Wayne Brown, Eunice Williamson, program participants, Pleasant Meadow Girls in Action and leader, Geraldine Coats, as well as to all women who came to pray for all peoples around the world on this special day. A love offering was taken and a check for $333.10 has been sent to the North American Baptist Women's Union.

“We're Here for You” was observed by churches, individuals, or groups undertaking special projects on November 7. Waccamaw WMU appreciates those who contributed non-perishable food items for the association-wide project in conjunction with this event. Seven bags were delivered to CAP in Conway for distribution to those in need.

Guests of Waccamaw WMU enjoyed hearing the latest news of WMU and learning more about the WMU Foundation at the “Lunch on Monday” event on November 17, 2014. Special guests were Dr. Jeff Gaskins, pastor of North Conway Baptist Church; Debby Akerman, WMU President; Laurie Register, Executive Director of South Carolina WMU; and David George, President of the WMU Foundation.

Upcoming in 2015:

January 14, “Coping with PTSD” Event, Wampee Baptist Church

February 8, “Missions Celebration” at Maple Baptist Church

Thanksgiving and Christmas ~ two beautiful seasons of the year, giving greater occasion to praise God for His abundant blessings and a time to rejoice and celebrate the birth of Christ.

As we individually and collectively surrender, sacrifice, serve,

Waccamaw WMU extends a grateful “thank you” to each church and individual who makes a difference in growing God's Kingdom! What a blessing to have age-level organizations (Mission Friends, Girls/Children in Action, RA's/Challengers; Acteens; MyMission, Women on Mission, and Adults on Mission) available for children, youth, and adults to grow in the knowledge of the Lord, learn about missions, and to be blessed while blessing others through study, prayer, and mission action! What a joy!

We hope each of you will be blessed as you observe this very special time of the year as we enter the Christmas Season and the Season of International Missions (study, prayer, and the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering)!

The Leadership Team of Waccamaw WMU extends best wishes to everyone for a MERRY CHRISTMAS and a HAPPY NEW YEAR!

God Bless. Peggy Jones, Director

BAPTIST COLLEGIATE MINISTRY

Ascribe to the Lord, O heavenly beings, ascribe to the Lord glory and strength. Ascribe to the Lord the glory due His name; worship the Lord in the splendor of holiness. Psalm 29:1-2

As the semester winds down and students begin taking finals and returning home all over the nation, our prayer is that students will see the Lord as glorious and respond accordingly. We have dedicated our Thursday night gatherings this semester to teaching students who the Lord is and we have coupled that with a series, which hits on basic tenants of what it means to be a disciple. Our prayer is that students are more equipped to be disciple-makers than they were just a few months ago.

November was a great month for BCM, and our Fall Retreat kicked off the month. We had a group of 18 students spend the weekend together learning how to study the Bible. Most of that group consisted of new students to the BCM ministry, which is exciting because we are already having the opportunity to train the future leaders of BCM. It was an incredible weekend of fellowship, learning, and hearing from God. Thank you all who made specific gifts to help with the retreat and thank you to those that faithfully pray for us! BCM also participated in Operation Christmas Child this year. We had a packing party on campus and students came together to pack 81 boxes in a little over an hour. We are prayerful as those boxes go around the world the opportunity for gospel change in children's lives.

December is a relatively slow month for the ministry as students are taking finals and heading home, but there are a couple of ways you can partner with us even during this month. First, we covet your prayers for students. It really is crunch time for students with regard to stress levels concerning grades, going home, and all sorts of things. Please pray for students and open door for ministry. Second, at the beginning of next semester, we will again be participating in Converge, our statewide collegiate conference. However, this year it will not be at the beach; rather it will be in the mountains, and it will be more costly for our students. If you would like to help students go through a scholarship, we would greatly appreciate it.

COASTLINE WOMEN'S CENTER UPDATE

Coastline is greatly anticipating and preparing for our Spring to Life Gala in February! This is a tremendous opportunity to introduce the ministry of Coastline to our community. Our theme for the evening will be "Life Worth Fighting For" which exemplifies our commitment to helping both women and men before, during, and after unexpected pregnancies. If you would like to be part of this life saving event please contact our Executive Director of Center Services, Lori Meetre at (843) 591-5244 or lori@coastlinewomenscenter.org.

Coastline Women's Center gladly accepts donations of maternity clothes, baby clothes, diapers and other baby supplies. Jeanne is also available to speak to your church or women's group. Call the center at 488-9971 for more information.

JUST FOR PASTORS!

Pastors in and around Conway are invited to be part of a group that will meet at Juniper Bay Baptist Church to begin forming a "Band of Brothers" type group as well as a study group for leadership development. They will meet from 9 - 11 AM at Juniper Bay Baptist Church beginning in January 2015 to discuss leadership development. The Third Tuesday will be our normal meeting time. Email James Way or call him for further information. Contact James Way at pastorjames@sccoast.net or 843.344.0770 if you have any questions.
